

Interfaith Dialogue: a source of peace.

Sister Flora Nirmala was nominated by Drew University, New Jersey, USA to participate in a three week course on Interfaith Dialogue at its Center on Religion, Culture and Conflict. Participants were from different nationalities: Indonesia, Pakistan, Egypt, Palestine and Israel. The focus of the course was the three major religions: Christianity, Judaism, Islam.

Indonesian participants - above

Sister Flora and other participants during a session

Hesty (Israel), Amina (Nigeria), Flora (Indonesia), Na'ama (Israel), Hafsa (Nigeria), Hindun Anisa (Indonesia)