

Religious of the Good Shepherd -
Center for Overseas Workers Project
Davao City, Philippines

RGS-COW is committed to the empowerment of overseas Filipino Workers from poor communities of Davao and surrounding areas, through community based organizing, training and socioeconomic programs.

OFWs and their immediate families are enabled to develop their capacities in decision-making and taking individual and collective action for their families and communities' well-being, especially in safeguarding of Christian family values, sound financial and enterprise management and protection of workers' rights.
