

No-Violence to Women and Children

Andheri-Good Shepherd Community

Orange the World

On 6th of December at 4.00 PM Sisters of the Good Shepherd at Andheri Mumbai organized a rally followed by a workshop on the topic violence against women and children. 180 women and children participated in the programme. With banners and placards, the rally began at the main gate of Good Shepherd residence and went round and came in chanting slogans such as; stop violence, stop sexual harassment, respect women and girl child, etc. The children of tuition center put up a short skit on the issue holding the placards in their hands. All appreciated the children's initiative in bringing awareness on this burning issue which is affecting the society. A team of resource persons from "Save Pearls Foundation" spoke about different topics like; good touch –bad touch, domestic harassment, abuse of children and women, etc. through short videos and sharing real life incidences. Time was given for interaction and the participants were very vocal to give their feedback. Awareness was created on prevention and protection from danger, sexual harassment, physical, verbal, psychological and emotional violence.
