

Fountain of Life Women's Center Good Shepherd Sisters Pattaya, Thailand

Offering a safe empowering environment

Goal of the Project

Over a period of 3 years, approximately 3,500 women and girls who work in Pattaya have been supported to escape from Gender Based Violence (GBV) 'commercial sexual exploitation or the sex trade' and Human Trafficking In order to learn languages, professional skills, and become self-reliant.

Purpose and Outcomes

- Women are aware of the value of their own dignity and their own autonomy.
- Women are aware of ways to escape from the human trafficking process and become liberated from gender-based violence. They are given knowledge of the current world situation.
- Women relax their body and mind and develop the potential of the human person.
- Good Shepherd Sisters support the women during transition in their journey of life.

Good Shepherd Thailand: networking with government officials, police service, attorney and schools in Pattaya City.
"Campaign to end sexual violence against children and women"

Good Shepherd Thailand: Awakening a sense of worth and dignity in women oppressed by society. Empowerment opportunities for marginalized women, survivors and women exploited by the tourism industry of Pattaya.

Good Shepherd Thailand: Awakening awareness in the Society where the women live, to End Gender Based Violence.

Fountain of Life Women's Center Activity:
"Together we can end gender-based-violence."

Building relationships essential to help women and girls bring about change in their lives and build self-confidence

Sr.Piyachat Boonmul, Director